

Brotzman's Nursery, www.brotzmansnursery.com , a family owned, 50 acre nursery in Northern Ohio, seeks a Production Management Assistant to be an integral part of the team. This is a newly created position for a person who wants to bring their passion, horticultural knowledge and experience to this unique, well respected, 60+ year old nursery operation of 500 + varieties infield cultivation. A degree in horticulture or related major is helpful, as is hands on experience. The candidate whom we seek will be a person of integrity who will report to the hands-on owner, taking on more and more duties and responsibilities, while making professional contributions to the unique operation. Does this sound like you?
